HOAGLAND'S NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING! W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive Carriage Factory, Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that we have ever seen used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

CLEAR THE DIRT! HOW? BY USING STANDARD SOAP CO.'S WASHING POWDERS.

CAUTION—OWING TO THE MANY IMITATIONS of this article, persons should be very cautious and purchase none but that branded "Standard Soap Company, of San Francisco," on packages and boxes. The imitations are palmed off by dealers, because of a greater profit to themselves. The great demand for this powder is a sure guarantee of the good qualities for washing purposes. It saves time and labor, and does not injure the finest fabric. Sold by all Grocers. Try Standard Soap Co.'s Detersive Soap. ap21d3m

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 16.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—In the Senate, Casserly introduced a bill providing that nothing in the joint resolution authorizing the Northern Pacific road to issue bonds for the construction of the road, is to be construed so as to guarantee by the United States any bond issued, and prohibiting the company from issuing mortgage bonds or creating other indebtedness to exceed $50,000,000.

Hamilton introduced a bill authorizing the construction of a railroad from Marshall, Texas, to San Diego.

The Pension bill has passed.

The House currency bill was taken up. Several amendments were rejected and the bill finally passed with Judd's amendment, striking out the clause for the cancellation of greenbacks by a vote of 78 to 81. The bill authorizes the issue of ninety-five millions additional currency, retires 3 per cent. and provides for the redistribution of twenty five millions currency. It is regarded as an inflation of fifty millions.

It is reliably ascertained that Caleb Cushing has nothing to do with the President's Cuban message. No one outside of the Executive departments knew of its existence before it was submitted to the Cabinet. Belknap and Boutwell were absent, but those present agreed that the condition of affairs in Cuba did not qualify the declaration of belligerent rights. While it is known that the President sympathizes with the people in their struggle for liberty, and will be glad to see all living on this continent in possession of a Republican Government, he regards his oath of office as requiring him to see that the Constitution and laws are respected, without regard to his individual desire or sympathy.

Message on Cuban Affairs—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The President has sent to Congress a message in condemnation of the atrocious manner in which the conflict in Cuba is carried on on both sides, and representing that the object of the Cubans who urge their recognition as belligerents is to embroil us in warfare, and declaring his inability to see in the present condition of Cuba those elements required to constitute war in any sense of international law, and inviting the attention of Congress to all the relations and bearing of the question in connection with the declaration of neutrality and the granting of belligerent rights. The message was referred to the Foreign Committee by both houses.

In the Senate, Cole introduced a bill regulating the manufacture of brandy from fruits. A bill granting lands for the construction of a railroad from Brownsville, Nebraska, to Denver passed. Also, a land grant bill for a railroad to Dacota.

The appropriation bill was considered and the Senate amendments voted on. That increasing the number of Representatives from 275 to 300 was adopted by 153 to 21.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—It is believed that the bill for the transportation of imported goods from the Pacific to Atlantic coasts in bond, and to the interior cities, will be passed as an amendment to the tariff, or that bill with limitations as to cities of 150,000 population.

Terrific Hurricane.

MEMPHIS, June 14.—A terrible tornado passed over a large portion of Arkansas and Missouri on Friday, commencing near Council Bluffs and passing down to Peters' Landing, crossing the river, thence leading to Bolivar county, leaving ruin and desolation in its track. It partook of wind, rain and hailstorm, utterly destroying the corn and cotton in its track, and stripping the forests for two miles. The crops were promising, the corn being in tassel. The loss cannot be estimated. On the the following day it was reported traversing the same course as far as heard from. Loss of life and further particulars anxiously looked for.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, June 14.—The police arrested a number of foreign residents who were at a meeting of Masonic Lodges three months ago.

A rebel fort was captured on Maximo river. Fifteen rebels were killed. It is reported that 18 were killed and 16 captured in San Mingrel mountains.

A Spanish gunboat captured important correspondence addressed to Cespedes.

Five boat loads of armed insurgents were captured off Cayoguayjada.

Further Washington News.

CHICAGO, June 14.—The Times' Washington special says the President's Message on Cuban Affairs created quite a sensation, no less for the matter than for the manner. Thurman, in the Senate, characterized it as a proclamation to the Cubans to lay down their arms. Cox, in the House, said it was the most imprudent Message ever sent to the American Congress, and asserted that Caleb Cushing wrote it. The Foreign Affairs Committee report on the Cuban question to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The bill subsidizing a line of steamers between San Francisco and Australia appropriates $300,000 per annum.

The Reconstruction Committee have struck from the Georgia bill the proviso that nothing herein contained should be construed to forbid the election of members of the Legislature next fall. The new bill is now like that admitting Virginia, with the addition of a proviso for organizing and arming the militia.

The Ways and Means Committee agreed to report a bill to relieve coal from all taxation, internal and external. The bill relieves coal companies from paying income tax on gross receipts, and the immediate repeal of duty on bituminous coal was voted down.

The House joint resolution relative to trade with British North America passed.

Cole presented a resolution asking for action by Congress to prevent importation of Chinese prostitutes, and requiring passports in such cases from American Consuls at Chinese ports. Also for an appropriation to improve the Harbor of Wilmington, North Carolina.

In the House, Sargent introduced a bill to regulate compensation of U. S. District Attorneys in California, making their salaries the same as received by District Attorneys in Oregon and Nevada. Referred.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Times' Washington special says that since the adjournment of the House to-night the friends of the majority report on Cuban affairs are confident of the defeat of Bingham's substitute.

The Tribune's dispatch says the debate in the House on the Cuban resolutions was very exciting. Logan, in reply to Butler, was exceedingly bitter and personal, declaring that the House never gave Butler authority to go into the Cuban investigation. The language of Logan caused great excitement. Butler rose to reply, but Logan refused to yield, and continued using strong language towards President Grant.

Rumors of Cabinet Changes.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The Tribune's Washington special says a rumor is afloat to-night that Attorney-General Hoar has tendered his resignation, and that the President has intimated his intention of asking Senator Williams to accept the position of Attorney-General. The Times' special says Attorney General Hoar to-day placed his resignation in the hands of the President, to take effect on the appointment of his successor, and it was immediately accepted. This action of Judge Hoar was entirely voluntary on his part, in pursuance of an intention formed some months since. Another change in the Cabinet is deemed probable at present.

The Herald's dispatch says that no doubt a number of changes are on hand in the Cabinet. Hoar has certainly resigned and Fish and others will probably follow suit. The President, in conversation with Senators to-day, expressed his determination of getting men around him as advisers who are attached to the Republican party and in harmony with it.

Pacific Railroad Freights.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The freight tariff by rail to the Pacific coast is reduced ten per cent.

Revenue Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Secretary of the Treasury states the decrease of revenue by the House tariff bill at $25,000,000 and the decrease of the internal revenue portion at nearly $52,000,000. Receipts for spirits during the year ending April 30, were $52,300,000, tobacco, $30,828,000. The Commissioners of Internal Revenue are preparing a new regulation to distillation from fruits. The amount will be reduced and other relief afforded.

Chicago Politics.

CHICAGO, June 14.—The Republican Convention to-day nominated candidates for Circuit Judges and appointed delegates to the Convention to nominate a Supreme Judge. The districts are arranged by the new constitution. The Democratic Central Committee have decided to hold no convention, but desire candidates to be nominated outside of party conventions.

Death of an Ex-Congressman.

BOSTON, June 15.—Thomas D. Elliot, ex Congressman, died in New Bedford, yesterday.

Political News.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Splits occurred in two of the Republican nominating conventions to-day. Opposing candidates were nominated in the 2d Congressional district and for Sheriff. In the latter convention the proceedings were very violent.

CAIRO, Ill., June 15.—The Republican convention of the 18th district nominated D. W. Munn for Congress.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 16.—The Republicans of the 2d district nominated Col. G. W. Carr, of Jackson, for Congress.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 15.—The Republican convention nominated Sydney Perham for Governor.

General News.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Beethoven Festival opened this afternoon with a chorus of 2,500 voices, an orchestra of 100 instruments and Madame Parepa Rosa in the solo parts.

BOSTON, June 14.—Senators Anthony, of Rhode Island and Cragin of New Hampshire were re-elected to-day.

The Grand Lodge of American Protestants met to-day. California is represented. The word white is ordered to be struck from the Constitutions of subordinate lodges.

BOSTON, June 15.—The Boston liquor law has finally passed. It excludes the sale of wines and allows that of ale and lager.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The World's Havana correspondent writes that another American citizen, Joseph Dreany, was seized by Spanish authorities on the 5th inst., and thrown into prison. He was on his way from Vera Cruz to New York, and touched at Havana by mere accident. This new outrage has reached our Consul Gen. Biddle. Possibly something will be done about it. Executions of Cubans convicted of disloyalty continue throughout the Island.

BY THE CABLES.

British Gunboat Lost.

LONDON, June 14.—Advices received here announce the total loss of the British gunboat Oley in the China sea. Her commander, Wm. Lolarvin, and forty three of the crew perished.

The Roman Council.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A cable dispatch from Rome, dated 2 P. M. to day, says that the majority of the Ecumenical Council have voted for the dogma with the penalty attached of an anathema against those who object to its declaration.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The number of Chinese that arrived by the Great Republic was about 1,300, though the number is not reported by the Mail Company. Among them were 29 women, who were arrested at once by the police on the warrant of Immigration Commissioner Snell, and taken to the calaboose. The charge booked against each was misdemeanor by landing Chinese prostitutes without permission from the Commissioner of Immigration.

In the case of the unknown man found murdered on Kearney street a week since, the Coroner's jury, unable to solve the mystery after hearing all the evidence obtainable, returned the following verdict: "That the deceased, unknown, came to his death from fracture of the skull, but whether accidentally or otherwise, the jury cannot say."

The question of the validity of Snell's appointment as Commissioner of Immigration, which office is claimed by the old incumbent, Dunn, will probably come up on the examination of the cases of the Chinese women in the Police Court.

Details of the late earthquake at Oaxaca, Mexico, were received by the steamer. The Cathedral was almost ruined. The old convent of San Juan de Dios was thrown down, several churches and public buildings were destroyed, and 103 persons killed and many wounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Some anxiety is felt for the safety of the steamer from Aspinwall for New York, connecting with the Constitution from here May 18, which has not yet reported at New York. It is understood, however, that she was delayed at Aspinwall, and is now only a little overdue, so that no apprehensions need be felt.

The first peaches of the season arrived to-day from Putah Creek. One dollar each was offered for them and refused.

Twelve applicants for admission to the Annapolis Naval Academy will be examined physically by Dr Precht this afternoon and to-morrow. A committee, consisting of Col. J. R. Goldsborough, Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald and A. J. Moulder, will examine them on education and intellectual qualification, and decide on the one entitled to the appointment.

Chief Crowley asks the publication of the following:

NEW YORK, June 1, 1870.

To P. Crowley, Chief Police of San Francisco: Hereafter no notice will be paid to telegrams sent to this Department calling for the arrest of parties charged with crime unless full particulars are given as to name, nature of offense and authority for the arrest and such telegram must also be signed by the Chief of the Police, and the place from which it is sent. The course for this step is owing to parties frequently telegraphing for the arrest of persons without having consulted the police or proper Authorities, resulting in the arrest and detention of persons without sufficient grounds for so doing. (Signed)

JOHN JOURDAN, Sup't.

A Company composed mainly of foreign capitalists, has been formed here. They propose to put on the Webb steamers, late in the Nicaragua opposition line between here and Australia, dispatching the first by July 5th, and making regular trips in twenty-one days, each way, not stopping at Honolulu.

The Health officer arrested a number of leading butchers to-day for not removing from Brannan street and those previously arrested will be fined to-morrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Weather warm, wind light and from the southwest.

This morning all the butchers were fined $21 each, in order to allow them to appeal to the County Court, and an appeal was taken immediately. After the appeal was taken it was discovered that the ordinance intended to prevent slaughtering within the limits of San Francisco was so worded as to make the district within which slaughtering is prohibited lay on the eastern side of the bay, in Alameda county, instead of San Francisco county. This error being fatal, it will be necessary to have a new ordinance drawn before further prosecutions can be instituted.

Gen. Thomas N. Casenau was elected Grand Marshal for the Fourth of July celebration, by acclamation, after some hours' wrangling last night by the Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Some misapprehensions about the new steam line to Australia has occurred. The facts as they are now stated are as follows: A wealthy company has been found in London to carry a steam line via San Francisco to Australia. Lord Lowther is President of the Company, and Sir Charles Clifford, M. P., Vice President. Directors as follows: Hon. Talbot, M. P.; C. Read, M. P., Moynick, M. P., and Bassett, who is also President of the Great Western Railway of England. The Atlantic portion of the line is to run from Milford Haven to Portland, Maine.

The Great Western Railroad and the Grand Trunk Line of this country have subscribed toward the stock of the company $2,500,000 in order to control the traffic over their routes. If Webb, of New York, goes to the United States the English company expect to leave the Pacific portion of the route to him. If he does not they will run straight through. Immediate action will be taken as soon as the decision of Congress on the subsidy question is known.

Arrived—British schooner Success, 32 days from Yokohama; merchandise to Williams, Blanchard & Co.

The celebration of the Fourth this year will undoubtedly be the most extensive ever witnessed in San Francisco. The failure of last year has caused all parties to drop their differences, and the expression of the determination to unite heartily this year is general. Gen. Casenau is promised financial assistance and co-operation from all quarters.

O'Connell will not appeal the suit against the Mercantile Library lottery, but a new suit by one of the original charter members of the association will be commenced in a few days. Attorney General Hamilton has positively refused to commence suit in his official capacity.

It is reported that the Pacific Mail Co. will draw off part of their steamers, running but one per month in the Panama line, and inaugurate a steam line to Australia in opposition to all the other lines which may be started.

James Donahue, Health Inspector, has been removed and J. H. Clarke appointed in his place.

The last Panama steamer brought one bale of coarse foreign blankets for this market, while the mills here are shipping fine ones east.

It is rumored that a movement is on foot among parties disappointed at the choice of Casenau for Marshal, to have the militia ordered out on the 4th for parade before the hour of procession, so as to detract as far as possible from the success of the celebration. Should such order be issued nearly all companies will unite in thwarting the movers by joining the procession as soon as parade is over.

Maguire's Opera House is crowded almost to suffocation, many persons being turned away unable to obtain standing room, on the first appearance of the "Blonde Troupe" this evening.

THE WEST.

At Santa Cruz, Cal., June 8th, a misunderstanding between two prominent citizens came near resulting in an unpleasant manner. A sense of wounded honor prompted a challenge, which was readily accepted, and the preliminary arrangements for a duel were made. Time—the instant; revolvers the weapons, and a select spot convenient to the town, the place. The meeting was only prevented by the timely interference of Deputy Sheriff Lincoln.

The Central and Union Pacific Railroad Companies now offer to carry fruit from San Francisco or Sacramento to Chicago for $500 per car load, on freight and emigrant trains. The Companies will also fit up cars according to the plans of shippers, until they have discovered what plan is best to retain. The old rate of $950 per car will still be charged for conveyance by passenger trains; but it is claimed by the railroad managers that fruit can be carried as satisfactorily by the other trains.

Yesterday, says the Marysville, Cal., Appeal, of June 3d, a Digger squaw was observed perambulating our streets, her hair cut short, and completely enveloped with a heavy coat of tar, extending down on both sides of her face. The sight was rather a disgusting one, but as the faithful maiden of the forest had adopted this mode as a method of showing respect to, and mourning for her deceased lord, it was looked upon as an act of affection, and regarded as altogether commendable—among that class. We understand that this is a commendable custom among the Diggers, being handed down to each subsequent generation.

The Nevada Gazette of June 8th relates this incident: A couple were married at Downieville on Friday, who had never seen each other before. The lady was courted by letter, and came all the way from England to be married. Better luck than a young gentleman encountered a year or so since, some few miles from our sanctum. He exchanged photographs with a young lady in the Atlantic States, and a correspondence led to an engagement; the lady to come out and be married here. On arriving and being met by her affianced she peremptorily declined the honor of an alliance, avowing that while his face looked well enough, she "would never wed with such a little spud of a fellow as him."

A subterraneous outlet to the Great Salt Lake has been discovered opposite Corinne, and between Fremont and Kimball Islands. The schooner Pioneer, Captain Hannah, sailing in the vicinity Tuesday, June 7th, was drawn into the opening, which is an immense maelstrom, or stupendous whirlpool, and the descent and circular motion of the water were so rapid and violent that the vessel was made to spin around in it with frightful velocity, and it was only by the high wind prevailing at the time that she was enabled to sail beyond the influence of the chasm. Captain Hannah reports that he has no doubt whatever that this opening never before discovered, is the grand outlet of the lake. A party of scientific men will leave Corinne immediately, on the steamer Kate Connor, to investigate the subject.

A Pure Daily Newspaper.

The Chicago Advance says no one who estimates aright the influence of the press in modern society, and who reflects upon the power of a paper which daily visits thousands of families, and is read more or less by parents, children, and domestics, can avoid a heartache when he considers the moral tone of the ordinary morning and evening journals.

The excuse that the duty of a newspaper is only to report facts, and that it is not responsible for their nature, is almost too shallow to be even specious. No decent, self-respecting newspaper attempts to report all facts.

Nor is there any more reason why an editor should put into print the details of all the public vice and crime of which he can learn, than that an artist should transfer them to canvass, or put them into a drawing or engraving for some infamous pictorial. It is perfectly easy to make such mention of evil as shall notice its existence, and condemn its influence, without ministering to prurience by minute descriptions of its nature and methods. Why should a self-respecting journal publish disgusting minutiæ of each round of a prize fight, any more than the scarcely more infamous details of a night in a brothel? Why must families which would shun an obscene book, and would burn a copy that should stray into the house, be compelled, in taking their daily paper, to receive columns of obscenity in the form of police reports, adultery and divorce trials, and the particulars of every case of marital infidelity, or of seduction which can be gathered up by correspondents, or can be scissored from the exchanges by an industrious sub-editor.

We sorrowfully admit that there is an extensive craving for such reading in circles called respectable. Many who do not enter into vice, like to read descriptions of it, and, in so doing, to indulge unhallowed imaginations. Others have a curiosity to know all that is going on in the world, not sufficiently considering that it is better not to know much, if anything, on certain points. The morbid desire increases with the gratification, and therefore he is responsible who feeds and nourishes it. A tainted joint of meat breeds disease in those who feast upon it, and a morally tainted newspaper corrupts entire families, debauching young and old, and taking away even from our ladies the bloom of perfect purity. Money thus made will be a curse, and wide circulation thus gained should be considered so much infamy and not speculation."

THREE THOUSAND HOGS ROASTED ALIVE.—The stock pens of Gaff's distillery, in Cincinnati, containing 4,300 hogs, were burned on Wednesday morning of last week. Three thousand hogs were roasted to death. The scene is said to be as grand as it was horrible. Great columns of flame, fed by the living fuel, shot upwards thousands of feet, and rolled off in dense masses of black smoke. The outcry of the frightened animals, as they crowded one above the other into the corners of the pens remotest from the fire, until its rapid approach first scorched and then consumed them, awed the spectators, who stood looking helplessly on. Every effort was made to save at least a portion of the hogs, the greater proportion being hopelessly cut off. But a little over a thousand of the animals were gotten out in all, and the rest of the 4,200 were literally broiled alive. The odor of the burned or roast pork pervaded the city for many blocks in all directions after the fire died out for want of fuel. The loss on live stock is estimated at $60,000.—St. Louis Democrat, May 18th.

Gen. Geo. H. Thomas left no will. The amount of his personal estate is reported to be $40,000. His brothers, John W. Thomas and Benjamin H. Thomas, are still living, and also three sisters, Judith E., Ann, and Frances Thomas, who live on a plantation near Newsman's Depot, Southampton county, Va.

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING JUNE [illegible] 1870

That Great Railroad Issue

A b[illegible] of the Humboldt Middle Fork railroad [illegible] magnitude [illegible] that project into an affair of vast importance before the election and thought it was the only issue [illegible] the campaign [illegible] it would seem to be [illegible] the whole thing [illegible] appear in [illegible] to all [illegible] A matter of such vital concern as they pretend [illegible] that we ought not to be suffered to collapse so soon and be heard of no more

A fierce fight was made against Senator Williams and indirectly against the Republican party by those interested in this project and by some others interested in the military road land grant who expected to be benefitted by the grant for the railroad Charges of corruption were freely made by them, and Williams was denounced for having as they alleged, sold out the interests of Oregon Now who would suppose that the immaculate gentlemen who were so ready to prefer these charges, themselves have a record on this subject which will not bear examination? The manner in which their company was organized and the means they employed to carry their ends make a curious and instructive chapter in the history of men who charge others with corruption When the railroad company that made all the noise that vexed the ears of the public before the late election was first organized the capital stock was fixed at $15 000 000 It was deemed necessary to secure the co operation of men who could aid it and accordingly $1 000 000 was set apart for a certain Senator, a like sum for a certain Representative and smaller amounts for other Congressmen and lobbyists at Washington As Tom Fitch of Nevada has stock in the concern no doubt he is one of the subsidized agents and attorneys in it. Senator Williams we have reason to know and can prove was approached with an offer of an interest in the enterprise, but he peremptorily declined it with the remark that he would not receive any stock for the reason that he would never legislate to put money in his own pocket Isn't it rather cool for men projecting an enterprise like this, after failing in their attempt to procure the influence of a Senator in such a way, to turn upon him with denunciations and with charges of corruption, because they failed to induce him to support their plans? And doesn't this much lauded enterprise begin to wear an interesting aspect, as we look into it?

The moving power behind this project is the Central Pacific railroad company of California Their plan is to get control of the railroad system of Oregon and cripple as much as possible the Northern Pacific road which they look upon as a dangerous rival They are of opinion that a railroad from the Humboldt, coming into Western Oregon at Eugene City, would be able to crush or absorb all other lines The Oregon and California road having no connections, would fall a prey to them All rivals would be driven out of the field The Northern Pacific would be forced away from Portland to Puget Sound and the Central Pacific would be master of the situation in Oregon All this has been freely canvassed by the projectors of the enterprise Mr Pengra and others have made no concealment of the ultimate design As a further consequence of these operations Southern Oregon would be left out, for the road coming through the Pitt river country and joining the Humboldt and Eugene branch, would run around that section of the State

Had Senator Williams taken the stock that was offered him and worked for the enterprise, becoming an instrument of the Central Pacific company and their Oregon agents he would have escaped all their recent maledictions But the election in this and the west side counties where the fight was made on the "railroad question," proves that their maledictions did not injure him or the Republican party

A Change Demanded.

According to Brick Pomeroy who is an accepted authority with the Democracy of Oregon, and who is more than ever entitled to be called their leader since they mounted his platform of repudiation, the party of which he and they are such conspicuous ornaments is weighed down by an incubus in the person of August Belmont, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee Brick is greatly scandalized by the humiliating fact that the man who is in a position to be regarded as the representative man of the party should be a "bloated bondholder," and as agent of the Rothschilds, handle more national bonds than any other man in America As Pomeroy, like the Oregon Democracy is in favor of repudiating all the bonds, with all the legislation that has grown out of the war he comes down on Belmont savagely He says "With a decent Democrat a man of the people,—in the place of August Belmont we can easily triumph, and bring to a close this infamous legislation to which we have too long submitted

Now if a change is to be made and a repudiation Democrat is to be appointed to the place which Belmont holds an Oregon Democrat should have the position The repudiation Democracy of this State are fairly entitled to it. In view of their boldness in adopting a repudiation platform, and their success in carrying the State upon it, they should have this recognition They are entitled to stand at the head for they are in advance of their party in all the other States on this "vital issue" Who is to have the position? It belongs of right either to Mr James D Fay of Jackson county or to Mr Ben Hayden of Polk. Mr Hayden on account of the suavity and polish of his manners his easy graceful flow of persuasive eloquence, and his unchallenged position as the best representative man of his party in Oregon, should probably be allowed to claim it To permit the party to be headed by a bondholder when it is calling for repudiation, to intrust its purity to a man whose interest leads him to trade off its strength and thwart its objects is not to be endured by Pomeroy and the Oregon Democracy Let the change be made at once!

The award to Mr Holladay of the contract for carrying the mails from this city to Sitka is a matter of very considerable importance to Portland and to Oregon A steamer each month to and from Sitka will build up an important trade and add materially to the business of Portland Our city will thus have an advantage for the Alaska trade over any other point Enterprise like this is what is needed to swell our trade and make Portland a point of note and consequence But we suppose that some people will see in this enterprise new proof that we have a "monopolist" among us who is dangerous to Oregon

The Herald regales its readers with an arti[illegible] [illegible] New York [illegible] and says that [illegible] were [illegible] This [illegible] It is also [illegible] in New York city before the colored [illegible] the polls organized [illegible] of Democratic repeaters [illegible] the city and voted on the [illegible] names [illegible] would vote [illegible] repeat [illegible] New York [illegible] the superior race who did the repeating [illegible] unmolested

The New York Herald justly says that "the flourishing condition of the Treasury and prosperity of the country are seen in the large and continual decrease of the debt from month to month During last month the debt decreased over fourteen millions and for the three months since the 1st of March more than thirty one millions Well may the credit of the United States rise both at home and abroad No nation in the world has such resources or such a prospect of liquidating its debt within a reasonable time

Suppose that Senator Williams had taken the stock that was offered him in the Humboldt branch road and worked at the dictation of the Central Pacific company and certain of the Oregon military road gentlemen—would they in that event have denounced him for any alleged infamous subserviency to a monopoly and tried to defeat the Republican party therefor? Probably not

POLITICAL ITEMS

John A McMahon, nephew of Mr Vallandigham, is a prominent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Third Ohio District, and at present stands the best chance for the nomination

In the tenth district of the Sixth Ward of New York—the Five Points neighborhood—there is an official population of only 1 878 and in that district the Democracy at the late election polled 1 534 votes

In New Jersey the Democracy are in a terrible quandary This need not annoy them for they are simply in the same trouble as their misguided brethren all over the country "What shall be our policy?" is just now the anxious inquiry of the New Jersey Democratic press The Newark Journal, the leading Democratic paper in East Jersey, is outspoken and emphatic in its antagonism to the negroes as a race as the chief plank in the Democratic platform as is also the Camden Democrat

The November election will be the most important held since the fall of 1866 A new House of Representatives must then be chosen and besides, one United States Senator from each of the following States Maine New Hampshire Massachusetts Rhode Island New Jersey Delaware, West Virginia, Virginia North Carolina South Carolina Alabama Louisiana, Mississippi Kentucky Arkansas Michigan Minnesota and Nebraska Many of the present Representatives were elected by such small majorities that there can be no certainty as to the politics of their successors Seventy eight received majorities ranging from forty one—given to Reading of Pennsylvania—to twenty five hundred Nine Democrats and fifteen Republicans held their seats by less than six hundred majority

The San Francisco Chronicle has this In view of the wholesale naturalization frauds which are of constant occurrence in many parts of the country on the eve of important elections, Congress proposes to deprive State Judges of the power of admitting persons of foreign birth to citizenship, and confer it upon United States Courts exclusively, whereupon the Democratic press unite in a general cry of indignation at this new "atrocity of usurping Radicals" This might have been expected for the Democrats are in the habit of manufacturing voters at a rate sufficient to carry any election and any plan suggested that interferes with their manipulations is sure to be denounced by their organs Why citizenship should not be conferred by the Judges of United States Courts, under such directions as Congress may authorize by virtue of the Constitutional provision is beyond our ken It deprives no citizen of his just rights it gives no Court power to prevent a certificate from issuing when justified by the facts Honest politicians of either party cannot complain of a law that places both on an equality

OREGON

From the Mountain Democrat we learn that the Democratic majorities in Union county are as follows Slater 167 Grover 18[illegible] Chadwick 152, Fleischner, 182, Patterson, 181

The Statesman has the following from Curry county The average Republican majority on the State ticket in Curry county is 30, one small precinct to hear from which will increase it from 3 to 5

The La Grande paper reports that mining prospects in Baker county are unusually good The opening of the Burnt river ditch has caused the realization of many high expectations about the yield of the mines

The Salem Statesman says On complaint of A A McCully, Esq charging J Gounsky with having voted more than once at the election on the 6th of June, a warrant was issued yesterday and Gounsky was taken before J Q Wilson Justice of the Peace The prisoner asked time and was put under $100 bail to appear for examination this morning at 10 o clock

Following items are from the Eugene Journal Mr W T Wilson of Ohio has gone to England to purchase Cotswold sheep for the purpose of shipping to Oregon this season. He will have them here as early as September if possible further information can be had of Mr Jerry Lucky of Eugene City The election passed off without a single disturbance Hon J H Mitchell is engaged to deliver an oration on the 4th of July at Eugene The house of Mr Robert Linder living in Lost Valley precinct, Lane county, was burned with all its contents on last Monday The family were absent from home at the time The fire caught from the stove

THE INDIAN COUNCIL AT WASHINGTON —A recent Washington dispatch gives the following

The Great Council between the Secretary of the Interior Commissioner Parker and the Indian delegation was held to day

Secretary Cox made a speech promising that all treaty stipulations shall be observed by the Government but that no arms or ammunition shall be furnished till Red Cloud and his people promise to keep the the peace

Red Cloud in reply said The Great Father may be good and kind to white people and has given my lands to them The Great Father has sent people out there and left me nothing but an island Our nation is melting away like snow on the side of the hill where the sun is warm while your people are like blades of grass in the Spring when the Summer is coming I don't want to see white people making roads in our country The white people have sprinkled blood on the blades of grass about the line of Fort Fetterman Tell the Great Father to remove that fort Then we will be peaceful and there will be no more trouble I have two mountains in that country —Black Hill and Big Horn I want no roads there There have been stakes driven in that country I want them removed I don't want a reservation on the Missouri My people are dying off like sheep The country don't suit them From the North and West the red nation has come into the Great Father's hand We are the last of Dallas We have come to know the facts from our Father—why the promises made us are not kept? The men whom the President sends us soldiers have no sense or heart You are people who should keep the peace for the railroads You are passing through my country I have not received even a brass ring for the land they occupy You whites make all the ammunition What's the reason you don't give it to me? Are you afraid I am going to war? You are great and powerful I don't want it for that purpose but to kill game with I suppose I must in time go to farming but I can't do it right away"

During the late Fenian excitement, the Montrealers organized home guards and prayer meetings, and the banks hid their bullion, anticipating a raid after the manner of St Albans

The Election

PERSONAL —Gov [illegible] man and several gentlemen who came out with him as agents for the Chicago German [illegible] arrived from Olympia yesterday and will take the next steamer for San Francisco and thence by rail to Chicago [illegible] bring out his family and The Governor [illegible] expects that the colony [illegible] to the number of about [illegible] will come out at the same time The most of them will [illegible] on Puget Sound

Bishop Morris of the Episcopal Church who has been on a tour to Idaho Eastern Oregon and Walla Walla reached home by the Dalles steamer last evening We learn that he has taken steps to build a Church at Walla Walla the citizens of that place having donated some lots for a site

We learn that [illegible] overland on [illegible] Saturday [illegible] R Thompson [illegible] and family [illegible] will arrive at the same time

Gen Crook and staff arrived home yesterday from an inspection tour of the military posts in the eastern part of this Department

LOTTERY TICKETS —A telegram from San Francisco states that the managers of the Mercantile Library lottery announce only 20 000 tickets left out of 200 000 By the way several hundred tickets in this scheme have been purchased by parties in this city and we hear that the five dollar pieces have been going down very lively of late, under the expectation that tickets would be [illegible] very scarce [illegible] course every holder expects to be struck by lightning A little arithmetical calculation shows that each ticket holder has about one chance in three hundred and eighteen to get a prize of any sort so it will be seen that lightning is not very liable to strike often enough in Portland to seriously depopulate the city

PASSENGERS FROM VICTORIA —The propeller California arrived last evening from Puget Sound and Victoria, bringing the following list of passengers Miss Carrie Watkins Mrs James Har[illegible] P J Mann Geo Fox John Hawe, Mrs E Bannister John Arnest Thos Golden Newman Spinres Fred Wilson A J Curtis Mr and Mrs Seldon Mrs Moard F F Smith and lady L F Lockridge Mr Pickett Jacob Davis Jane Pollard Alfred Burlingame John Mathews, Geo Saundrie and wife J K Holey Mr C Wilson, H McClusky Shadrack Parkins Wm Strain Geo Williams Chas Shreide Michael Fox J Holdsworth and wife, Donald McRae P O Dwyer Alex McRae John Gilbert Thos King

BENEFIT TO MRS BATES —Mrs Bates who still maintains her position as the favorite of the people of Portland will take a benefit this evening, on which occasion will be played for the first time in this city the burlesque extravaganza of "Alladin or the Wonderful Lamp"—Mrs Bates in the character of Alladin supported by the Pixley Sisters and the full company There will also be a farce— The Day after the Wedding," and a duet by Misses Annie and Minnie Pixley What are the Wild Waves Saying?" This will be the last appearance but one, of Mrs Bates, and this fact coupled with the bill offered should get out a crowded house

SALE OF FARMING LANDS —Mr Paul Ohling, agent for a number of German families in Stevenson county Illinois has purchased a farm of 1,480 acres in Linn county paying $13 000 in gold for it He proposes purchasing several tracts of land in addition to the one in Linn county and will bring his family and friends out to Oregon in September or October next. Mr Ohling's attention was first attracted towards Oregon by the publications issued by the Board of Statistics Immigration and Labor Exchange sent to him by a German friend in this city

TO GOOD TEMPLAR LODGE DEPUTIES —Mr C Beal, Grand W C T of Oregon has issued the following circular Lodge Deputies I desire to have you make a report to me every two weeks till the Grand Lodge meets Report the general condition of your Lodge the number initiated at the last two meetings the public temperance meetings held the sermons preached on the subject and by whom and what can be said in the Good Templar to advance the cause in your locality You will feel at liberty to give any other information which may be beneficial for me to know"

BOUND FOR ASTORIA —Messrs Shartliff B F Brown and several other gentlemen from up the valley representatives to the Grand Lodge and Chapter of Masonry at Astoria have arrived at this city en route and will go down to day Several others are expected down to day and tomorrow The Grand Lodge will convene on Monday and the Grand Chapter this evening The Statesman says that Mr T McF Patton represents the Grand Lodge of England and B F Brown those of Kentucky Ohio and the District of Columbia

A HUGE RAFT —Yesterday morning Messrs Stimson & Marsh started a raft of logs from Columbia Slough for this city which contains logs enough to make three million feet of lumber—the result of the winter's logging by a considerable force of hands The raft which is built in three tiers is three miles long It is destined for Estes & Stimson's sawmill at North Portland This is probably the largest raft ever towed anywhere on the Pacific coast

WOOL —The Salem Statesman says The down boats are bringing large quantities of wool for which the factory company pays 22 cents per pound There is considerable wool also arriving at this city and what may appear singular there is no small quantity being shipped up the river

FRESH SHELL FISH FROM ASTORIA —Mr J Quinn at the [illegible] Fish Market Washington street received a [illegible] of fresh clams mussels and crabs by the [illegible] steamer last evening [illegible] of these delicacies must call early to secure a share

DELINQUENT CITY TAXES —The list of delinquent city taxes will be handed over to the Marshal for collection [illegible] sale of property after to morrow Those who wish to avoid additional expense should call [illegible] and settle

MAILS TO ALASKA —A telegraphic dispatch from San Francisco says The contract for carrying the [illegible] mail [illegible] and [illegible] to Sitka Alaska has been awarded to Ben Holladay service to begin July 1st [illegible]

POSTPONED —The Sunday School [illegible] and exhibition to be given by the First M E Sunday School this [illegible] will take place next Wednesday evening instead of Friday evening as previously announced

NEW STEAMER [illegible] The steamer Julia was brought up from [illegible] yesterday to take the place of [illegible] the [illegible] route The [illegible] boat [illegible] to the [illegible] for repairs

CURRENT NOTES.

When a young man in Greece joins the brigands his friends regretfully announce the fact by saying "he has gone into politics"

The daughter of Walter M Brown, of Fair Haven, Connecticut, has ten grandparents living, to wit One great great grandmother, one great grandfather, four great grandmothers two grandfathers, and one grandmother

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has returns from the following District Land Offices showing a disposal during the past month (May) of 59 964 acres of the public lands Dakota Nebraska 36 998, Oregon City, Oregon, 12,619, and Roseburg, Oregon, 10 347.

Mrs. Victor, the Cleveland murderess, now in the Penitentiary at Columbus, gives considerable trouble occasionally There was a change of matrons recently at which she took umbrage and went to bed and laid as if in a trance She remained thus two weeks, refusing food, when the guard discovered that she had secreted a sufficient quantity of eatables to sustain life for some time and of this she would partake when no one was about After being deprived of this she soon got over her trance

It is stated that one good has literally grown out of the rebellion The rebel line about Petersburg and Richmond, for nearly fifty miles, is now marked by continuous lines of peach trees, which the Johnnies planted unintentionally by eating the fruit and throwing away the seed, while on duty The growth has changed the looks of the whole country and abundant crops have already been yielded by these peach forests This is the most striking mark of enterprise the rebels have left to tell of the past Out of evil cometh good

Hon, Horatio Seymour President of the American Dairymen's Association who once ran on a Democratic ticket for President of the United States, is complimented in the Hearth and Home with a portrait of himself and a diagram of his farm Mr Seymour is an estimable country gentleman, hospitable intelligent and esteemed by his neighbors, who knowing him well overlook the temporary weakness which induced him to lend his name to the use of a broken down political organization of false pretenses and disloyalty

Minnesota has a larger Scandinavian population than any other State of the Union amounting, it is said, to about 60,000, or one eighth of the whole This total is distributed among the different nationalities as follows 40,000 are Norwegians 15 000 Swedes, and 5,000 Danes These people are among the most industrious and law abiding in the State; They are generally farmers and seek the country districts immediately upon their arrival They are sober and intelligent, and it is needless to add, almost always Republican in politics.

Mrs Senator Wilson, previous to her marriage, was Miss Harriet M Howe of Natick, and was married to Mr Wilson thirty years ago, toward the end of the Presidential campaign of 1840, in which 'the Natick shoemaker' first won distinction as a popular orator Their silver wedding was celebrated Oct 27 1865 Their only child Col H H Wilson, who served in the late war, has been dead for several years and the death of Mrs Wilson leaves the Senator alone in the world But he has a large family of attached and grateful friends, who will sympathize with him in his affliction

Dr Draper in the June Galaxy gives the Tobaccophagi a dose to swallow He says that in the whole inhabited globe there are but three of them—a hideous worm a stinking goat and man! The prevalence of insanity he thinks is largely due to the use of tobacco The ancients used no tobacco and insanity was little known among them It is a curious fact, too, that the establishment of insane Asylums in Europe took place after the introduction of tobacco and when smoking had become fashionable One argument however goes far to reconcile us to the use of the weed "Cannibals who have once experienced the nauseating effects produced by the flesh of victims who were tobaccophagoi, ever after avoid such viands with disgust If Sydney Smith had only known this when he told the New Zealand missionary that he hoped he would disagree with the cannibal who should eat him he might have presented the good man with a pound or two of Cavendish by way of stuffing It must be a soothing thought while undressing for a roast, that the man who is to eat you will be sick of his bargain

An additional lot of those handsome suits worn by everybody both heavy and light weight was received by Koh & Fishel No 91 Front street They are equal to the best custom made and pleasing to all men that wear them They also received an extra fine lot of striped calico shirts and ... shirt

Their stock of clothing is the largest and finest in Oregon and sold at extreme low prices

The Wear and Tear of Business Life

The cares and labors of business life are apt to tell severely upon the health and constitution of the ardent energetic business man, and when the need of some sustaining agent is felt stimulants that cause only a temporary exhilaration and leave the system in a state of partial collapse when their first effect has passed off are too often resorted to As certainly as fire leaves behind it a residuum of ashes the use of the adulterated liquors of commerce produce premature exhaustion and decay Touch them not. To ... and regulate the overtaxed vital machinery with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters In that wholesome elixir the alcoholic element, which is the purest derivable from any source is tempered by the choicest tonic ... anti bilious and anti-febrile vegetable extracts and juices To strengthen, recruit ... and purify the system is the mission of the great vegetable specific. When the stomach is in a healthy state the bile flows regularly the bowels perform their offices properly and the telegraphic fibres of the nervous system are in perfect working order an enormous amount of labor can be borne without labor or inconvenience, and the direct effect of the Bitters is to promote this vigorous condition of the functions upon which the nourishment of the body and its power of endurance mainly depend The great tonic and alterative is, therefore emphatically recommended for its remarkable strengthening properties to all upon whom the responsibilities of life press heavily and who feel like fainting under the burthen A lively appetite a splendid digestion elastic spirits and a marvellous ability to withstand fatigue are among the blessings justly ascribed to the renovating operation of this palatable and powerful cordial, indeed there is nothing in the materia medica that can be compared with it

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily ... The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Aladdin—Or the Wonderful Scamp

[illegible]

A great many years ago in Tartary a country famous for emetics there lived a little puke called Aladdin. He was a half orphan on the fat ers side and he grew up a hopeless young vagabond with an irrepressible propensity to steal water melons suck eggs and run away from school. One day when Aladdin was playing marbles for keeps with three or four other ga[illegible] grants a stranger whose shirt front was studded with California diamonds set [illegible] neck stopped to observe the [illegible] game.

The stranger was a magician [illegible] dice box sword [illegible] eck and and other mysterious paraphernalia he could coax postage currency out of the pockets of a chanted greenhorns transmute metals so that his bogus jewelry would pass for genuine with low tchéd diots make himself invisible when the constable was after him hoodwink the self [illegible] ed by three cards and a little joker and perform various other cabalistic wonders familiar to ancient sorcerers and modern sharps.

The adroit manoeuvres by which Aladdin captured his comrade s marbles recommended him to the magician as a youth who might become make [illegible] for stock gamblers gold speculators and other licensed sports and as he needed a lad in his necromantic spells he engaged Aladdin as capper a vocation well calculated to develop those peculiar financial traits which afterward made Aladdin famous.

The boy became a neophyte in the Mysterious Order of Dead Beats by having a big brass seal ring—the badge of membership placed on his little finger and he set out with the magician on a professional tour of Tartary whose country fairs horse shows, barbecues etc, afforded a profitable field for sorcery. Aladdin was an apt pupil in the black art and the new firm had transacted but little business before he began to practice incantations upon the bogus jewelry with a proficiency that caused the mysterious disappearance of several valuable articles. But retribution was on hand as usual and a paste brilliant having been traced by the magician to Aladdin s pocket the unhappy vagrant was speedily reduced to solitary confinement in an enchanted station house whose murky obscurity was scarcely relieved by the feeble glimmer of a solitary lamp. [This solitary lamp with feeble glimmer attachment,' etc, was patented by Mr B[illegible] who has assigned individual rights to S. Cobb Jr., and me. Infringers will be prosecuted.] Aladdin proceeded to bedew his cheeks with several bitter tears, and remorsefully wiped his nose on his sleeve as he sorrowfully contemplated his sad plight and wondered in poetical accents "Do they miss me at home?" He paused in vain, for a reply and he would still be bedewing and wiping with no one left to tell the tale (for when a magician gets mad he never lets up) but happening to notice the dullness of his ring he produced a piece of chamois leather with which to polish it. At the first rub there burst on his startled vision one of the Genii a being of appalling aspect, half man and half pettifogger.

When Aladdin beheld this dire presence he had symptoms of fits, and, in the extremity of his fright, he tried to crawl into the lamp chimney but when he found this refuge impracticable he commenced screwing his knuckles into his eyes and howling, "Yah o o! I wasn t me mister! I didn't mean ter," and a number of other irrelevant remarks which our reporter failed to catch. The genii however allayed his pain by remarking sepulchrally "Mortal I am a Toombs Shyster and the Slave of the Ring—the Tammany Ring. As long as you have the ring—or any other little trinket—you may command my services. What wouldst thou?" Aladdin replied "I'd like to give bail and go home. The old woman wants to see me bad. I guess Greeley will sign my bond." Seizing the lamp as a memento of captivity—he never could subdue that petit larceny passion for mementoes—Aladdin was summarily enveloped in a habeas corpus and transported to his ancestral hall, where his mother welcomed him with hospitable hands vigorously applied to that portion of his anatomy contrived by nature with special reference to such ordeals. When this stern prerogative of domestic discipline had been vindicated, Aladdin exhibited his trophies, with a very mollifying effect upon the maternal bosom. But in furnishing the solitary lamp he elicited another member of the Genii family, whose hideous apparition drove the old lady under the bed in a paroxysm of hysterics. This demon introduced himself as the Slave of the Lamp, ready to do all kinds of dirty work.

With the slaves of the Ring and the Lamp obsequious to his most extravagant wishes Aladdin decided to go into business. He embarked in a career of speculation which was signalized by the most dazzling success. If he yearned for railroad or any other kind of stocks the slave of the Ring would transfer unlimited shares to him for a nominal consideration, or issue new scrip surreptitiously. If he coveted real estate, the Slave of the Lamp would light on it and convey it to him. Jaghoole, the Soldam of Eri admiring his financial acumen, made him Prince of Eri and shared sovereignty with him. When Jaghoole desired to share his sovereignty his process was simply to create more shares. That was his way of taking people in. Jaghoole and Aladdin kept the other Tartarean potentates in a continual ferment by their audacious exploits.

They organized a raid upon the Christian patriarch Dan El Dru and stripped him of his stock and drove him out of Eri into exile.

They laid an ambush for the howling Dervishes, called Stockjawbers, and having decoyed them into a secluded corner in Eri, fell upon and cut off of every Stockjawber his coupons for future ransom. Aladdin caused his slaves the Genii to to collect all the gold in Tartary and lock it in strong chests and then on a certain day with Jaghoole and the Ring, he went forth into the street and every man whose gold was short they crucified.

These and similar deeds made Aladdin notorious throughout all Tartary and the general opinion among the knowing ones was that his wealth was extremely fabulous. His raiment of velvet glistened with precious gems—which suggested to that [illegible] pundit Old Tartaric Acid, the soubriquet of Precious Jemmy —his equippage was of royal magnificence and he moved in the Cream of Tartar society.

Old Tartar Emetic the Oyster Khan of Tartary having advertised that he would receive sealed proposals for the hand of his daughter the Princess Lobelia. Aladdin s bid of forty bushels of diamonds was accepted and the gems were delivered by the Genii, as per contract.

When the Khan had ascertained the genuine quality of the diamonds, by scratching his glass eye with them, he smiled from ear to ear and placing Lobelia's hand in that of Aladdin told him to take her and be happy. Lobelia was a lady of decided taste and active disposition and Aladdin had scarcely taken her before he began to feel raled about his bargain. In fact the more he took Lobelia the more retched he was and as Lobelia began to suspect that she had caught a Tartar they concluded that their two hearts couldn't beat as one any more. They agreed to live separately. Aladdin was living separately with perfect looseness, when the Stockjawbers arose and demanded the coupons of which he and Jaghoole had despoiled them. The revolt spread also to the people of Eri who clamored for the heads of Aladdin and Jaghoole. To escape the popular fury they took refuge in an enchanted Opera House where they are still besieged by an army with banners of preferred stock, and armed with summonses, orders injunctions, writs, and other engines of destruction. May the best man win.

Alexander H Stephens Opinion of Gen Grant.—The second volume of Stephens work A Constitutional View of the Late War Between the States has made its appearance. His opinion of Gen Grant is given in the following extract:

I was never so much disappointed in my life in my previously formed opinions of either the personal appearance or bearings of any one, about whom I had read and heard so much. The disappointment moreover was in every respect favorable and agreeable. I was instantly struck with the great simplicity and perfect naturalness of his manners and the entire absence of everything like affectation show or even the military air or mien of men in his position. He was plainly attired sitting in a log cabin busily writing on a small table by a kerosene lamp. It was night when we arrived. There was nothing in his appearance or surroundings which indicated his official rank. There were neither guards nor aids about him. Upon of neither cock a rapping at his door the response Come in was given by himself in a tone of voice and with a cadence which I can never forget. His conversation was easy and fluent without the least effort or restraint. In this nothing was so closely noticed by me as the point and terseness with which he expressed whatever he said. He did not seem either to court or avoid conversation but whenever he did speak whatever he said was directly to the point and covered the whole matter in a few words. I saw before being with him long, that he was exceedingly quick in perception and direct in purpose with a vast deal more of brains than tongue, as ready as that was at his command.

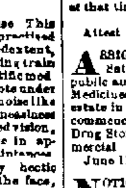
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] and suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases a special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written statement binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the [illegible] and [illegible] quacks and pretenders who with bogus swords to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of these self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and [illegible] tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. [illegible] makers newspaper carriers [illegible] keepers etc. Look over a San Francisco Directory and you will find their Medical Institutes [illegible] but you will find them [illegible] Look at the Directory [illegible] The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets [illegible] advertising physicians nine cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are. Dr G [illegible] to deceive people by exhibiting bogus [illegible] letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultation FREE.
